

Nina Esch | Client Management Consultant

Minneapolis, MN | DOH: July 2017

Nina was born and raised in Elmhurst, IL, a suburb of Chicago, IL. She attended the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign where she majored in Instrumental Music Education. After college, she moved to Colorado where she was a ski instructor at Vail for 3 years and then a Band, Orchestra and Engineering Teacher in Denver Public Schools as well as the Orchestra Director of the University of Colorado Anschutz Medical Campus for 5 years. She then moved to Raleigh, NC for a year to join CAPTRUST and afterwards relocated to Minneapolis, MN to be closer to her family. She lives with her partner, Stephanie and their 2 dogs, Olive (Wheaten Terrier) and Koda (Bernedoodle).

Hobbies/Interests

Downhill alpine and water skiing, hiking, playing music (violin, guitar & conducting), collecting vinyls, kickboxing, reading and long distance running.

Places she has travelled/visited

Austria, Belgium, France, Germany, Iceland, Italy, Banff CA, Mexico, National Parks: Arches/Moab, Bryce Canyon, Great Smoky Mountains, Glacier, Grand Canyon, Grand Teton, Redwoods, Theodore Roosevelt, Yellowstone and Zion.

Places she would like to travel to/visit

Whistler, CA, Maldives, Australia, Thailand

Fun Facts

She is a PSIA certified ski Instructor and licensed scuba diver.

Bucket list

Hike to the basecamp of Mount Everest and go parahawking in Nepal.

