

Dan MacLachlan | Senior Team Lead

Raleigh | DOH: 10/31/2016

Born in Waterbury, CT, Dan moved with his family to NC when he was 9 years old. Since then, he has spent all his life in North Carolina, whether in the Raleigh area or in Wilmington, where he went to UNCW for college. He has a wife, Ashley, daughter, Dakota, and dog, Kenna. Before meeting his wife, Dan hadn't traveled west of the Mississippi River – but fortunately because of her, he has the travel bug and loves taking long weekend trips with her.

Hobbies/Interests

Taking time to travel and explore new places with his wife, being loud and annoying while cheering on the Hurricanes at PNC Arena, cooking and grilling out with friends, spending time with his family, being a girl dad.

Places he has travelled/visited

Southern CA, Chicago, Boston, Denver, Philadelphia, Atlanta, San Francisco, Washington, D.C. North & South Dakota, Arizona, South Carolina & Michigan.

Places he would like to travel to/visit

Does everywhere else count as an answer? Because everywhere else. He and his wife being big hockey fans want to go to games in every arena in the US & Canada.

Favorite Movie/TV show(s)

TV shows: How I Met Your Mother, Jeopardy! and The Good Place. Favorite movies: Star Wars (any of them), Christmas Vacation, Shawshank Redemption and Up.

What he would bring to a potluck...

His wife makes some amazing air fried chicken wings – that and some flavorful hot sauce is all that would be needed for a great potluck!
