

Monica Holtgrewe | Client Relationship Manager

Charlotte, NC | DOH: October 2010

Monica was born in California but soon moved to Switzerland where she lived for almost 10 years. She also lived in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia for 3 years before returning to the US before high school. Graduating high school in Tampa, FL, she attended Wake Forest University in Winston-Salem, NC where she majored in Business. Monica is married to Andy for over 20 years, and has two children, Samantha (16) and Alex (14).

Hobbies/Interests

A committed runner having completed 2 marathons, numerous half-marathons, and several trail races. Also enjoys reading, hiking, movies/TV shows.

Favorite books

Mostly historical fiction, memoirs, biographies. Also enjoys a good psychological thriller.

Places she has travelled/visited

Living internationally, she has visited over 25 countries. One of her favorite trips is taking her family to Switzerland, France and United Kingdom in 2018.

Places she would like to travel to/visit

A trip to Italy, Croatia and Greece with my family following my daughter's high school graduation.

Fun Facts

She is first generation American. Her father, originally from Switzerland, and her mother, originally from Vietnam, met and were married in California.

