Bio:

Acquired in 2019 with a dozen years in the financial services industry. Born where we grow the oil in Texas but call it's capital home. Married to my polar opposite and we live our best lives traveling and dabbling in real estate. Never birthed my own children but am a grandmother of 4. I am much too cool to be "grandma" so they call me Flashy. Also a kitty parent to the coolest cat around, Wooderson.
