

Daniel Spencer | Client Management Associate II

Raleigh, NC | DOH: June 2018

Daniel was born in Raleigh, NC, and has lived their whole life in the Triangle. They have two sisters, one of them a twin, and a wonderful tortoiseshell cat named Ripley, after Sigourney Weaver's character in Alien. In their free time, they're a comedian, podcaster, musician, puzzle designer, beer brewer, and board game designer, leaning fully into being a "jack of all trades, master of none."

Hobbies/Interests

Aside from everything mentioned above, Daniel loves playing board/card/video games, watching movies (especially horror), escape rooms, cooking, making cheesecakes (the only thing they can bake well), playing disc golf, and spending time with their parents, sisters, and brother-in-law!

Places they have travelled/visited

Seattle for a podcast convention, NYC for an improv comedy festival, Disney World, the Bahamas. They really need to do more traveling.

Places they would like to travel to/visit

Vancouver in British Columbia, Scotland, Belgium, every NHL arena, Brisbane in Australia

Fun Facts

They won a ship-wide trivia championship on a cruise (having earned the spot in the championship in a Disney Villains trivia game), they worked briefly as a head brewer at a brewery, and they organized three St. Baldrick's charity events raising over $100,000 for the cause!

What they would bring to a potluck

Spring or Summer: Key Lime Cheesecake

Autumn or Winter: Apple Cider Cheesecake
