*Brian Miserlian and Peter Vander Ploeg
(Lone Tree, CO)*

Peter shares:

Brian and I met while working at Fidelity. We got to know each other during our time at Fidelity and stayed friends after I left, about four years ago. We continued to cross paths often, because we enjoy doing the same things outside of work. Just recently, we ran into each other and got to talking about the new opportunity at CAPTRUST's Lone Tree office. Brian contacted the hiring manager, and the rest is history. I am thrilled to have him as a colleague once again!

3rd Quarter Employee Referrals

*Rory Atwell and Evan Patterson
(Raleigh, NC)*

Evan shares:

Rory and I grew up in the same neighborhood, and I was close friends with his brother throughout grade school. Over the past few years, Rory and I grew to be closer friends and often discussed investments and other topics related to the economy we both found of interest. We kept up as he graduated college with a degree in finance and started working at an accounting firm, which he expressed wasn't exactly in line with where his passions lay. When he mentioned a strong intent to move to Raleigh, I knew CAPTRUST would be the perfect destination to match his goals. I heard the team had an open position, passed along his resume and contact information, and the rest is history.
